Memo No. KW 13/2 - 2013 CEC (3)
Dated Panchkula, the 16/01/2015

Sub: Issues relating to service matter and salary of Computer Faculties.

The computer faculties working in various Govt. schools were engaged by Service Providers namely Shriram New Horizons Ltd. (Zone Ambala and Gurgaon), Transline Technologies Ltd. (Zone Hisar) and M/s Bhupindra Society (Zone Rohtak) as per the agreement signed with them on 19.8.2013. Right from the beginning of the contract, the Computer Faculties have been complaining against the Service Providers in respect of the issues relating to the undue security charged from them at the time of appointment, non contribution of employer's share towards ESI and a number of other issues. Based on the enquiry conducted by the Department, default notices were served upon the Service Providers by the Department on 25.3.2014, 3.7.2014 and 4.8.2014. It was conveyed to the Service Providers in the default notice that failing compliance, Department was left with no other alternative except to terminate the contract. However, the companies obtained a status quo order from the Civil Court which finally directed the companies to go in for arbitration, which they did. The hearing in the arbitration case has been conducted on 06.01.2015 and on 16.01.2015.

2. The salary of the Computer Faculties for the months of April and May 2014 was paid directly by the Department under peculiar facts and circumstances. The aforesaid agreement with the Service Providers is still in force and accordingly, it has been decided by the Government that in no circumstance, the Computer Faculties in future will be paid directly by the Department.

3. Government has directed the Service Providers to make payment of balance salary of Computer faculty immediately. In respect of the attendance of the computer faculties, it was conveyed vide this office memo of even no. dated 15.9.2014 that attendance shall be submitted to DEO office for further transmission to this office. The attendance upto September 2014 has been received from the field except attendance of few Districts. It is hereby directed that attendance upto September 2014 may immediately be submitted to this office by the remaining Districts within next 10 days failing which disciplinary action against the defaulter shall be taken.

M. R. Satyji

4. From September 2014 onwards, the District Coordinators of the Service Providers shall be collecting attendance from the schools and their bills shall be released accordingly for payment to the Computer Faculty. In this respect, it is hereby directed that the attendance of the period from October 2014 to December 2014 may be submitted by the concerned Principal /School Heads to the District Coordinators /the Service Providers upto 31st January 2015 under intimation to this office at email faccomp2014@gmail.com failing which disciplinary action shall be taken against the concerned Principal/School Head.

This supersedes the pervious decisions as contained in the office memo of even no. dated 22.8.2014 and 15.9.2014

It is directed to ensure strict compliance of the above instructions.
