

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR SECONDARY EDUCATION HARYANA PANCHKULA

Order No. 12/34-2009 Admn. (2)

Dated, Chandigarh the 09-02-2011

The advice from the Finance Department vide their U.O. No. 78/06/2010-3FD II/2031 dated 15-07-2010, regarding take into account service rendered against sanctioned and aided posts in Private Aided School as qualifying service for pensionary benefits. The advice are as under:-

"Finance Department observes that the benefit of pension and gratuity has already been allowed to the employees of Govt. Aided Establishment w.e.f. 11th May, 1998. Now, it has been decided that the service rendered by them in Govt. Aided Establishments be considered as a qualifying service for the purpose of calculation of pension because in both these establishments those are Aided School/Colleges and Govt. Schools/Colleges, the benefit of pension and gratuity is available under the provisions of service rules. However, the said benefit will admissible only to those employees who covered under the service rules and are entitled to the benefit of pension under the provisions of the Haryana Aided Schools (Pension and contributory provident fund) Rules, 1999 and Haryana affiliated Colleges (Pension and Contributory Provident Fund) Rules, 1999".

The above said advice may be complied accordingly.
