Memo No. PA/AD(Admn.)/2017/12
Dated, Panchkula, the 14/03/2017

Subject: Leakage of question papers.

As we know that annual examination of various classes are going on in full swing. So, elaborate arrangements for holding the examinations have already been made by the Board of School Education as well as the District functionaries. In spite of all this, it is very disheartening and shocking that news of leakage of papers have been received from some places. In this context, it is stressed that if any leakage of any question paper comes to notice of the District Education Officer or other officers, then immediately curative steps must be taken as per the prescribed instructions in this behalf. Not only this, it would be much better if we deploy all imaginable preventive measures to ward off any such unethical attempt at vitiating the sanctity and credibility of the examination process.

The curative actions should also be reported in the media if any news of leakage comes out.

At the same time, every such occurrence be reported to the Headquarter too, so that no culprit goes unpunished.
