At the time of verification of the teaching experiences issued to the candidates selected as PGTs on the basis of experience certificate acquired from your institution/school, it has been observed that teaching experience certificates issued by your institution/ school are not supported by relevant/genuine documents rather it reflects unreasonable, unjustifiable and irrational approach adopted by your institution/school while issuing teaching experience certificates. Multiple number of certificates have been issued in a particular subject from your institution/ school as it is ascertained from the number of the recommendations made viz-a-viz the number of the students appeared in the board examination.

After above verification by the department, it has been found that school authorities have violated the provisions of Rule 43 of Haryana School Education Rules, 2003 amended in 2007, wherein it has been provided, for suspension or withdrawal of recognition/N.O.C. of the school for violation of the above provisions.

The candidates, who have been selected as PGTs but have not been issued appointments, are approaching the department by way of submitting representations. After careful consideration, it has been decided to grant one more opportunity to the schools as well as the candidates for re-examination of the relevant records regarding the issuance of teaching experience certificates.

Therefore, it is required on your part to explain and justify your position on 04.05.2015 at 10:00 A.M at 6th Floor, Shiksha Sadan, Sector 5, Panchkula before the committee constituted to verify the genuineness of the teaching experience certificates issued by your school to the candidates selected as PGTs in various subjects.

At the time of verification of the teaching experiences issued to the candidates selected as PGT in subject of Sanskrit on the basis of experience certificate acquired from your institution/school, it has been observed that teaching experience certificates issued by your institution/ school are not supported by relevant/genuine documents rather it reflects unreasonable, unjustifiable and irrational approach adopted by your institution/school while issuing teaching experience certificates. Multiple number of certificates have been issued in a particular subject from your institution/ school as it is ascertained from the number of the recommendations made viz-a-viz the number of the students appeared in the board examination.

After above verification by the department, it has been found that school authorities have violated the provisions of Rule 43 of Haryana School Education Rules, 2003 amended in 2007, wherein it has been provided, for suspension or withdrawal of recognition/N.O.C. of the school for violation of the above provisions.

The candidates, who have been selected as PGT in subject of Sanskrit but have not been issued appointments, are approaching the department by way of submitting representations. After careful consideration, it has been decided to grant one more opportunity to the schools as well as the candidates for re-examination of the relevant records regarding the issuance of teaching experience certificates.

Therefore, it is required on your part to explain and justify your position on 09.05.2015 at 10:00 A.M at 6th Floor, Shiksha Sadan, Sector 5, Panchkula before the committee constituted to verify the genuineness of the teaching experience certificates issued by your school to the candidates selected as PGT in Sanskrit.
